This Privacy Policy and Terms of Use (“Policy”) is our policy regarding maintaining the privacy of personal information we collect online and regarding our content and online relationship with you in connection with our online properties, including, without limitation, www.icfdn.org (the “Website”).

This Policy describes the privacy practices we undertake, the data we collect, how we secure that data, and how long we retain that data. It also includes the terms of use governing the Website. By using the Website, you agree to abide by the terms of this Policy. This Policy applies regardless of how you access our Website – whether by personal computers, mobile devices or otherwise.

The General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) is a European Regulation concerning the use and processing of personal information. We are committed to processing your information in compliance with the GDPR upon its effectiveness on May 25, 2018.

BY VISITING THIS WEBSITE, YOU CONSENT TO OUR USING ANY INFORMATION THAT YOU PROVIDE TO US OR THAT WE COLLECT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS POLICY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THIS POLICY, DO NOT VISIT OR USE THIS WEBSITE.

Information We Collect and Track. ICF collects and retains two types of information about Website visitors: (i) personal information that individual visitors provide when interacting on the Website, or voluntarily at certain other points (such as via forms or e-mails); and (ii) tracking data, which is automatically collected from every Website visitor, (collectively, “Information”). The Information that we gather may include your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, birth date or other elements of personal information.

In addition, if you contact us, we may keep a record of your correspondence, including any Information contained therein.

It is up to you whether or not you want to provide us with Information. When we ask you to provide Information, you can decline and still visit the Website to learn more about us and what we do. However, if you choose not to provide Information to us, you may be unable to contribute to our charitable mission.

Your Rights and Preferences. We are committed to honoring your right to privacy. With this in mind, it is important that we inform you of certain rights available to you with respect to the Information that you provide to us.

- Right of Access – your right to be informed of and request access to your Information;
- Right to Rectification – your right to request that we amend or update your Information where it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- Right to Erasure – your right to request that we delete your Information;
- Right to Restrict – your right to request that we temporarily or permanently stop processing all or some of your Information;
- Right to Object – your right to object to your Information being processed for direct marketing purposes;
- Right to Data Portability – your right to request a copy of your Information in electronic format and the corresponding right to transmit that Information for use elsewhere; and
- Right not to be Subject to Automated Decision-Making - the right to not be subject to a decision based solely on automated decision making, including profiling, where the decision would have a legal effect on you or produce a similarly significant effect.

It is important that you understand these rights and know that you are free to exercise each of them with respect to your Information. If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us as described below. In your request, please indicate (a) what Information is concerned, and (b) which of the above rights you would like to enforce.

How We Use Your Information. The Information that we collect and that you provide to us is used for our purposes and the purpose for which you provided it, including, without limitation, to support our charitable mission and/or to respond to your requests or correspondence. This provides ICF with a lawful basis to collect and retain your Information and to analyze it so that we can serve you in the best manner possible on our Website through enhanced features and functions and to provide you with useful information, including, without limitation, information from third parties.

We will not disclose any personally identifiable information to third parties, except (i) to parties who perform services for us, such as sending you mail or e-mail, web hosting, credit card processing and other similar services; (ii) when we believe that such disclosure is required by law; (iii) to enforce this Policy; (iv) to protect the rights, property, security or safety of ICF, Website users or the public; (v) to respond to an emergency; or (vi) as otherwise stated in this Policy.

We use certain tracking data for several purposes, including, without limitation, for load balancing metrics and to create reports on user demographics and Website traffic patterns. The reports that are generated from tracking data are used for a variety of purposes, including, for example, improving the Website and our services.

Analytics and Links to Third-Party Sites. We will not sell your Information or provide it to third parties for our own financial gain. In fact, we only share your Information when such sharing genuinely furthers our charitable mission. Nevertheless, we may employ third party agents or third party service providers to operate the Website and/or to perform functions on our behalf, such as processing donations or store purchases, sending mail and e-mail, and analyzing data or other administrative tasks. These third parties have access to the Information needed to perform their functions. We attempt to limit such third parties to using the Information that is shared with them solely for the purpose of providing such services, however, we cannot be responsible for such third parties' use of Information not in compliance with this Policy. Some of the third parties with whom we work include:

- Google Analytics – We use Google Analytics to gather information about how visitors engage with our Website, how many visit, and other general user visitor information. For further details on what information is collected by Google Analytics, please see Google Analytics' privacy policy at www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/.
We use Google Analytics only with IP anonymization enabled. This means that Google will truncate the IP address of users within Member States of the European Union or in other states that are party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transmitted to a Google server in the USA and truncated there. Unless you choose to take an action like subscribe to our mailing list or make a donation, we are not able to use Google Analytics to identify you personally. Your data is grouped anonymously with others to help us make improvements to our website and marketing experience.
- Social Media Widgets – Our Website includes social media features such as the Facebook "Like" button and Twitter "Follow" button. These features may collect your IP address, which page you are visiting on our site, and may set a cookie to enable the feature to function properly. These social media features are either hosted by a Third Party or hosted directly on our Website. Your interactions with these features are governed by the Privacy Policy of the social media company providing such services.
- Salesforce – We use Salesforce for data management, reporting and mass marketing. When you use the forms on our Website – such as to receive emails from us, contact us, or to donate, Salesforce collects that data. This can include basic contact information, preferences, giving history, and your interactions and communications with ICF. Other interactions with ICF outside of our Website may also contribute to information recorded in Salesforce, such as your attendance at ICF events, supporting ICF on third party giving platforms, and offline giving. For further details, please see Salesforce's privacy policy at <https://www.salesforce.com/company/privacy/>.

- Fundraise Up – We use Fundraise Up for fundraising, campaigns and direct donations. Fundraise Up collects basic contact information, and billing and credit card information submitted by donors. This data is also shared with ICF and stored in our secure Salesforce and FIMS database to help us manage your relationship and gifts to ICF and to communicate with you. For further details, please see Fundraise Up’s privacy policy at <https://fundraiseup.com/privacy>.
- Facebook - We use the “visitor action pixels” from Facebook Inc (1 Hacker Way, Menlo Park, CA 94025, USA, or, if you are based in the EU, Facebook Ireland Ltd., 4 Grand Canal Square, Grand Canal Harbour, Dublin 2, Ireland (“Facebook”)) on our website. This allows user behavior to be tracked after they have been redirected to the provider’s website by clicking on a Facebook ad. This enables us to measure the effectiveness of Facebook ads for statistical and market research purposes. The data collected in this way is anonymous to us, i.e. we do not see the personal data of individual users. However, this data is stored and processed by Facebook, which is why we are informing you, based on our knowledge of the situation. Facebook may link this information to your Facebook account and also use it for its own promotional purposes, in accordance with Facebook’s Data Usage Policy <https://www.facebook.com/about/privacy/>. You can allow Facebook and its partners to place ads on and off Facebook. A cookie may also be stored on your computer for these purposes. The legal basis for the use of this service is Art. 6 paragraph 1 sentence 1 letter f GDPR. You can object to the collection of your data by Facebook pixel, or to the use of your data for the purpose of displaying Facebook ads by contacting the following address: <https://www.facebook.com/settings?tab=ads>.
Facebook is certified under the Privacy Shield Agreement and thus guarantees compliance with European data protection legislation (<https://www.privacyshield.gov/participant?id=a2zt0000000GnywAAC&status=Active>).
- Google Marketing Services - On our website, we use the marketing and remarketing services of Google LLC (1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA; “Google”). These services allow us to display advertisements in a more targeted manner in order to present advertisements of interest to users. Through remarketing ads and products are displayed to users relating to an interest established by activity on other websites within the Google Network. For these purposes, a code is used by Google when our website is accessed and what are referred to as (re)marketing tags are incorporated into the website. With their help, an individual cookie, i.e. a small file, is stored on the user’s device (comparable technologies may also be used instead of cookies). Cookies can be set by various domains, including google.com, doubleclick.net, invitemedia.com, admeld.com, googlesyndication.com or googleadservices.com. This file records which apps users have visited, which content they are interested in and which offers have been used. In addition, technical information about the browser and operating system, referring websites, the length of the visit as well as any additional data about the use of the online products and services are stored. The IP address of users is also recorded, although we would like inform you that within the framework of Google Analytics, IP addresses within Member States of the European Union or in other contracting states to the Agreement on the European Economic Area are truncated.

All user data will only be processed as pseudonymous data. Google does not store any names or e-mail addresses. All displayed ads are therefore not displayed specifically for a person, but for the owner of the cookie. This information is collected by Google and transmitted to and stored by servers in the USA. International Community Foundation is unable to relate any personally identifiable information back to the user or owner of the cookie. One of the Google marketing services we use is the online advertising program Google AdWords. In the case of Google AdWords, each AdWords customer receives a different conversion cookie. Cookies can therefore not be tracked through the websites of AdWords customers. The information collected by the cookie is used to generate conversion statistics for AdWords customers who have opted for conversion tracking. AdWords customers see the total number of users who clicked on their ad and were redirected to a page with a conversion tracking tag. However, they will not receive any information that personally identifies users. We may include third-party advertisements based on the Google Marketing Service called DoubleClick. DoubleClick uses cookies to enable Google and its partner websites to place ads based on users' visits to this website or other websites on the Internet. The Google services we utilize also make use of Google's Tag Manager. This allows our website team to have more control over which pages tracking codes (such as Facebook, Google Remarketing, and Google Analytics) discussed previously in this Privacy Policy are placed on. For more information about Google's use of data for marketing purposes, please see the summary page: <https://www.google.com/policies/technologies/ads>, Google's privacy policy is available at <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy>.

Data collected by these vendors is sent to our secure Salesforce database to help us manage our relationship with our supporters. For further details, please contact us at the numbers and/or addresses below. We cannot control or be held responsible for third parties' privacy practices and content. If you click on a link to a third-party website, any Information that you provide will not be covered by this Policy. Please read any applicable privacy policies of the third-party website to find out how they collect and process your Information.

How Your Information Is Protected. We take reasonable precautions to protect your Information from loss, misuse or alteration.
